

Hattiesburg Area Public Daylily Gardens and Plantings

The Hattiesburg Area Daylily Society plants daylily beds in the area and contributes daylily plants for other plantings. Listed below are the current public daylily beds and planting sites, available for daily viewing.

Forrest County Multi-Purpose Center
at the Mississippi State University Extension Building
US Highway 49 South of Hattiesburg.

The Daylily Society has planted daylilies around the entrance to this building. This is the site of the monthly meeting of the Hattiesburg Area Daylily Society.

Hattiesburg's Lake Terrace Convention Center
Intersection US Highway 49 and I-59

There is a daylily bed in front of the Center, and plantings throughout the parking area.

Hattiesburg Visitors Center
Adjacent to Lake Terrace Convention Center
Intersection of US Highway 49 and I-59

Plantings are in and around the Visitors Center, which is in front of the Lake Terrace Convention Center.

Main Street Baptist Church
US Highway 98 West of Hattiesburg

Turn left at Hardee's if traveling from Hattiesburg. After leaving Highway 98, turn right in front of the church. The daylily gardens are on the right as you go around the church and in the back of the church. You can drive all the way around the Church. Church members, who are daylily enthusiasts, have made these gardens possible.

Mississippi Armed Forces Museum
Camp Shelby
US Highway 49 South of Hattiesburg

Enter the South Gate. Requirements to enter Camp Shelby include proper identification, a valid driver's license, and a current vehicle insurance card. Directions to the Museum will be given at the gate. The daylily bed is in front of the Museum.

Petal Middle School

Petal, Mississippi

Petal is located north east of Hattiesburg, just across the Leaf River on US Highway 11 and Highway 42. Drive on Highway 11 and 42 until you turn off Highway 11 into Petal. This turn is shortly after the Leaf River Bridge. Continue on Highway 42 through town. The Middle School is on your left, across from Wards Restaurant.

Temple Baptist Church

East Campus - Hardy Street near Kamper Park

The Church has planted numerous daylilies in the parking lot.

University of Southern Mississippi

A bed with 100+ daylily plants is adjacent to the Rose Garden at the front of the campus. There are also plantings near the Cochran Center and in the garden area inside Pete Taylor Park, the baseball stadium, on West 4th Street.
